Located on the corner of 30th and Campus Way, this state-of-the-art research facility is the largest donor-supported building project in the history of the university. Open to the public. 1-7pm.

In the News

“Iraq Road Show” in Oregon highlights green, clean and renewable (NUSACC) Catherine Mater, Sustainability Programs Director for the College of Engineering and the driving force behind the new Partnership discussed OSU’s relations with Iraq during NUSACC’s business roundtable session in Portland. She noted, "The Oregon-OSU-Iraq Partnership in sustainable engineering signed last year is a unique collaboration that brings higher education and commercial development together in Iraq”. OSU has launched an ambitious undertaking with Iraq that may serve as a model for other such initiatives.

Members of the OSU Concrete Canoe Team enjoyed a fun, chilly hour and a half rafting trip on the North Santiam River October 1st. There were 11 people in attendance, 5 of whom were new recruits. See rafting photos here. The Concrete Canoe is looking forward to a successful year and has a goal of qualifying for the national concrete canoe competition. There’s still time to join the team if you are interested! Contact Lori Vollmer at vollmerl@onid.orst.edu for more information. (See photo of the 2011 OSU "Dam Fast" Concrete Canoe, here.)

Opportunities

OCT 12, Wed– Grad school or work? Panel discussion, W. Willamette Room, Valley

CE Intramural Flag Football Team - ASCE invites all civil engineers to join. Membership is not initially required, but it will be only $15 to join for all of college. The team deadline is Wednesday October 12th (soon!), so I need your information as quickly as possible. Email howellke@onid.orst.edu your OSU ID #, full name, and phone number. You will also need to sign the back of the form, which is in Kearney 101 on Tuesday October 11th. Thanks! Kelsey Howell, ASCE social chair

Scholarships & Fellowships – several substantial awards have been renewed and posted. Get a head start on those applications before the deadlines expire! Both the grad and undergrad pages are updated continuously throughout the year. Check it out here.

Faculty & Staff – Open Enrollment Help Sessions, drop-in times available here

Grad Student and Faculty Workshops: The OSU Libraries Workshop series kicks off on Oct. 12-13 with sessions on EndNote, EndNote Web and Zotero, all great citation manager tools. Register here.

Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing Conference – as a sponsor, the OSU School of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science, can fund up to 25 students to attend this conference series in Portland, OR (November 9-12). Complete the application form (here) and turn it in to the EECS office (1148 Kelley Engineering Center) no later than Friday, October 14, 2011.
