Events

Sep 27- CEF Invitational Golf Tournament: Each September, the Construction Education Foundation (CEF) holds an annual fund-raising event at the Trysting Tree Golf Club in Corvallis. This event brings faculty, staff, students, alumni, and industry partners together to raise funds to support the Construction Engineering Management program. Net proceeds go to CEF. Contact: Lauren Farmen (541-737-4096) for more details.

Opportunities

IE3-OUS Chancellor Scholarships - IE3 offers scholarships to highly-qualified applicants with financial need. The award is in the form of a $500 - $1500 program fee reduction. IE3 Global Internships considers applications for all IE3 internship sites. To apply, submit a completed IE3 Scholarship Application online in addition to a completed Internship Application. Application deadline for Winter term is September 15.

Advising

Janice Nave-Abele will be taking walk-ins through the second week of Fall term. After the second week you will need an appointment. Online appointment scheduling is not currently available but should become available sometime during the first or second week of the term at <http://cce.oregonstate.edu/advising/signup/>. Janice is now in 101D Kearney Hall.

A warm welcome to our newest advisor, Timothea Lapham. Some of you may have already met Timothea as she has been working as an advising intern with CCE since early Spring term. Timothea is currently on vacation but will be returning as a regular OSU employee on Monday, September 16. Timothea's office will be 101E Kearney Hall.
