

Student Achievement:

1. Team Competitions

- a. Six teams represented OSU CEM at the February, 2014, Associated Schools of Construction (ASC) competitions in Reno, Nevada.
 - i. Marine team received 1st place recognition
 - ii. Mechanical team received 1st place recognition
 - iii. Risk team received 2nd place recognition
- b. Eight teams represented OSU CEM at the February, 2013, ASC competitions in Reno, Nevada.
 - i. Mixed-Use team received 2nd place recognition in Region 7
 - ii. Marine team received 3rd place recognition
- c. Eight teams represented OSU CEM at the February, 2012, ASC competitions in Reno, Nevada.
 - i. Marine team received 1st place recognition
 - ii. Mechanical team received 1st place recognition
 - iii. Heavy Civil team received 2nd place recognition in Region 7
- d. Seven teams represented OSU CEM at the February, 2011, ASC competitions in Reno, Nevada.
 - i. Marine team received 1st place recognition
 - ii. Mechanical team received 1st place recognition
 - iii. Commercial Building team received 2nd place recognition in Region 7
 - iv. Concrete Solutions team received 2nd place recognition
- e. Six teams represented OSU CEM at the February, 2010, ASC competitions in Reno, Nevada.
 - i. Electrical team received 2nd place recognition
 - ii. Marine team received 2nd place recognition
- f. In the 2010 MCAA national competition, the OSU CEM mechanical team received “final four” recognition.

2. Scholarships

- a. In 2014, the CCE scholarship committee awarded 14 scholarships to CEM students, totaling $33,500 in value.
- b. In 2013, the CCE scholarship committee awarded 11 scholarships to CEM students, totaling $17,000 in value.
- c. In 2012, the CCE scholarship committee awarded 21 scholarships to CEM students, totaling $51,500 in value.

In addition, CEM students have opportunities for scholarships awarded by construction industry organizations such as AGC , CMAA, and others.